ANNUAL EEO PUBLIC FILE REPORT FOR "OPTION A" BROADCAST STATIONS COVERING THE PERIOD FROM OCTOBER 1, 2007-SEPTEMBER 30, 2008

Reporting Station(s):

KAKM-TV & KSKA-FM

Activity	Date	Participating employees/members	Host/Sponsor of Activity	Brief Description
Engage the community in a self-education program about Islam	10/06 - 04/08	Programming Director, On-Air Announcers	AK Pacific University	KAKM and KSKA are media partners with AK Pacific University's Engaging Muslims: Religion, Cultures, Politics
Early childhood literacy implementation	7/06 - present	Programming Director, Producer	United Way, AK Humanities Forum	KAKM and KSKA is a media partner for Best Beginnings, a non-profit entity managed by the United Way and the Alaska Humanities Forum designed to ensure that the state's READY TO RED, READY TO LEARN task force recommendations for early childhood literacy are implemented.
A Place of Our Own	3/07 - Present	Programming Director	KCET	This programs comes to KAKM from KCET and is nationally sponsored. The program is directed at parents and early childhood caregivers and is focused on their needs to create educational and quality home care for pre-schoolers and young children. There is an extensive website that is associated with the program where viewers can get more information. A Place of Our Own is produced in association with Sesame Workshop, the non-profit educational organization behind Sesame Street and in association with 44 Blue Prod.